

To Whom it may concern:

May 31,2013

Dear Sirs,

With the present letter I fully recommend Eng. Enrique Blanco Vargas who has collaborated at Teva Pharmaceuticals since April 2009 and had been working with me through the operations organization until May 2013.

In all activities within the different projects and responsibilities Enrique Blanco had demonstrated responsibility, honesty, commitment professionalism, dedication and leadership. his remarkable orientation to results and skills to work within a team have enabled him to continuous achieve goals and objectives.

His working relationship with the team local and international had been excellent

For all the above and the experience and expertise he had, I strongly believe that Enrique Blanco is a professional with excellent credentials and capabilities which are convinient and desirable attributes in any growing company.

Sincerely,
Shosh Neumann, Ph.D
